NOTHIN' LIKE IT!

Somethin's moving, can you feel it?
Time to let your body go.
Don't hold back it's only spirit,
Jump right in and watch it it show!

Nothin' like it
The feeling deep inside
Nothin' like it
It feels to good to hide
Nothin' like it
A home away from home
Nothin' like it
At last we're on our own
Music's free, so come on let's dance
You and me it's our only chance
If we try we can fly together
Nothin' like it!
Pass it on, I think we've got it,
When you've got friends, love never ends.
Time to make it somethin' special
Come alive and live again!
Nothin' like it
The rush as you begin
Nothin' like it
The feeling when you win
Nothin' like it
The smiles and tears we share
Nothin' like it
A thousand friends who care
Music's free, so come on let's dance
You and me, it's our only chance
If we try we can fly together
Nothin' Like It!

Kris –
Well it's been a long year, hasn't it and we've become good friends. We had a lot of fun in health, without you there to give me answers and give me papers I probably would never have made it. So keep in touch "K".

Love you,

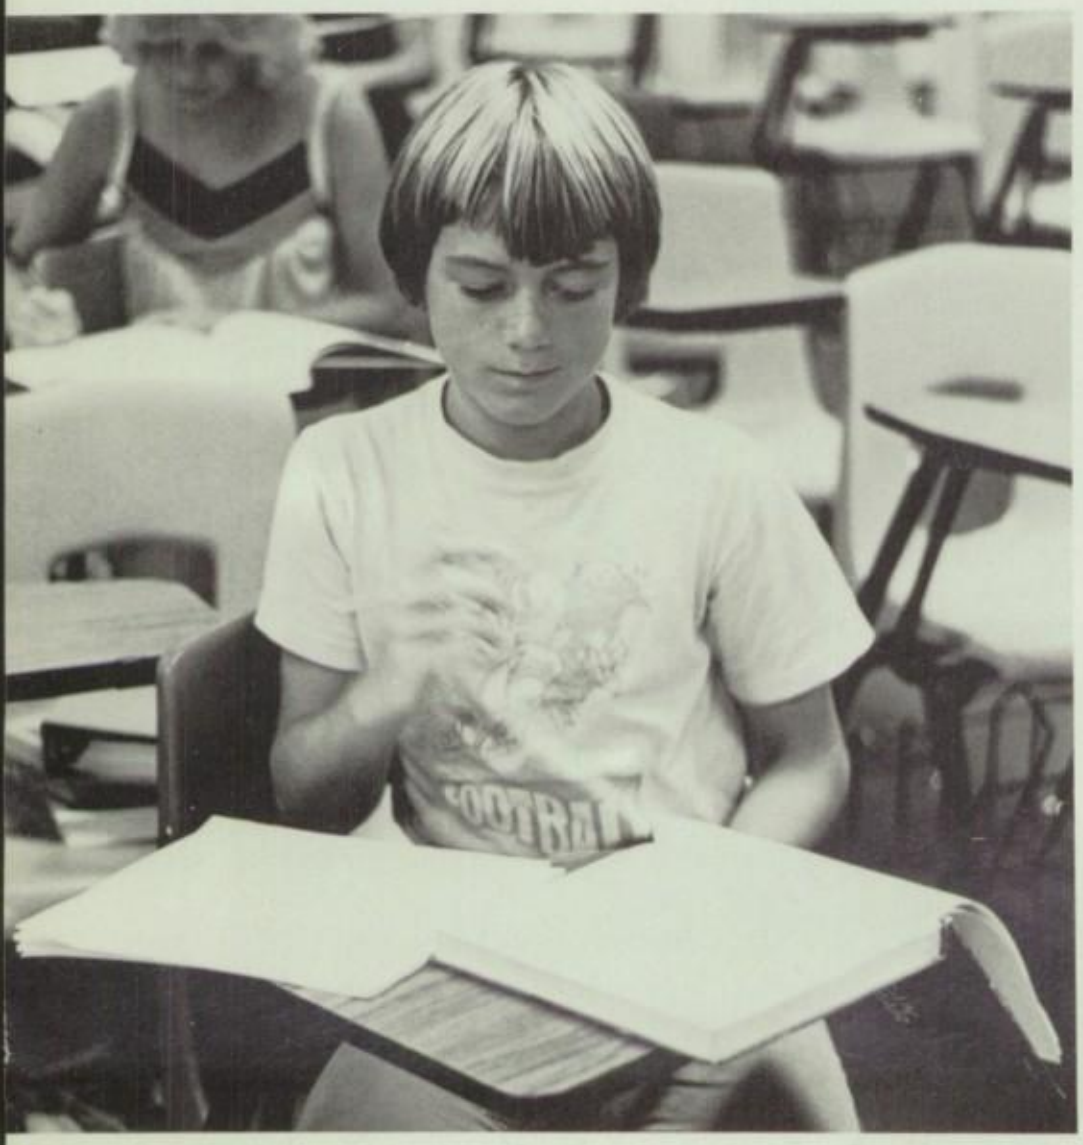
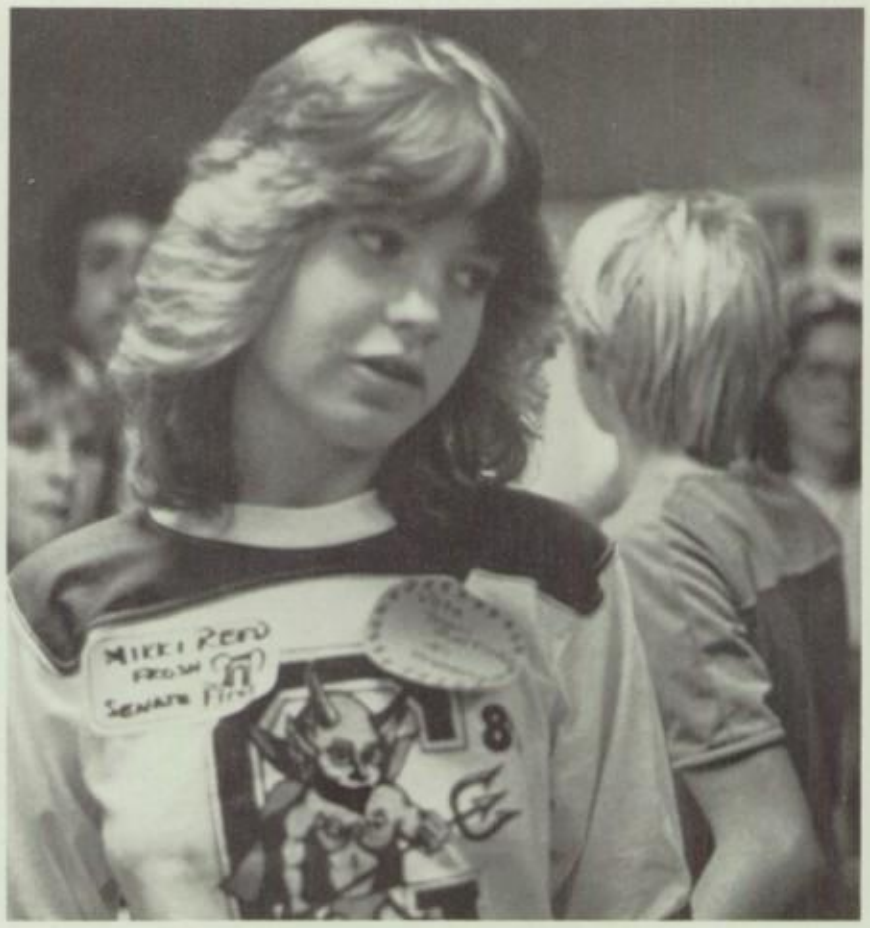
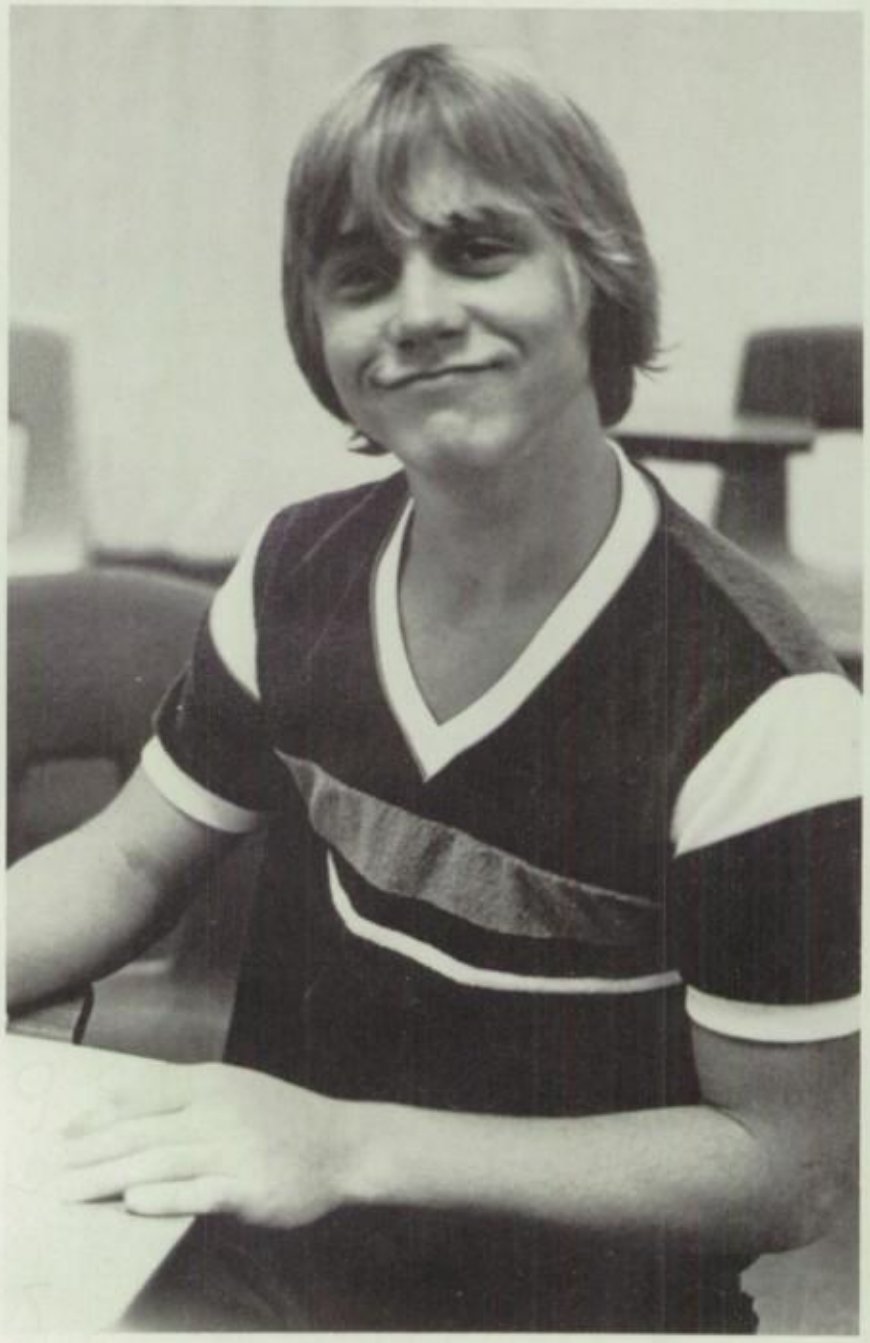
Freshmen adjust well to a new atmosphere

The Frosh of '84 easily accepted their new surroundings. They flaunted their eagerness by attending games and meets, and by joining many clubs. School work took time, but with youthfull strength, the new students adapted well.



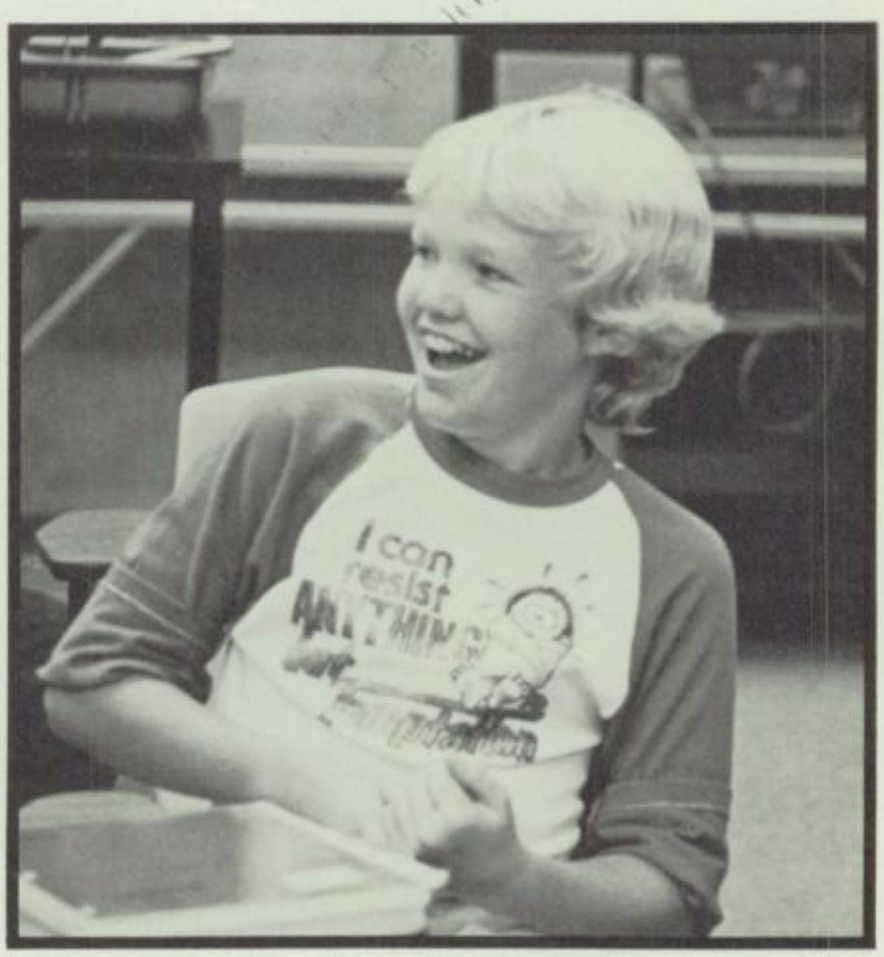




Counter clockwise: Mikki Reed campaigns for student council office. Todd Heglin found studying to be a must in high school. Doug White takes pride in being a member of the class of '84. Rob Swet thinks about how far he has been and how far he has to go. Bobby Dixon sees that high school will be great! Chris Wilson attempts to understand freshmen orientation.

Krisper,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. You are a crazy person and you'll need that to get through life. I hope to see you over the summer. I hope your Senior year is great. Well Kid I hope you have a good life. 978-2453

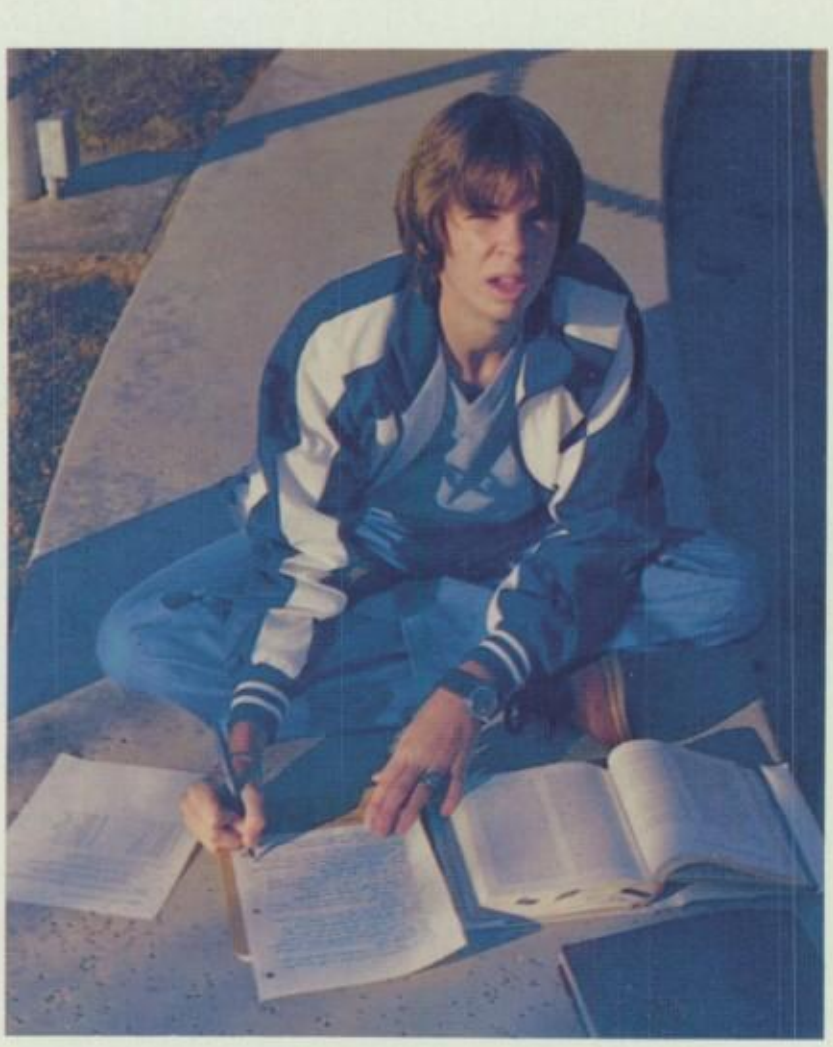
Love always Lynn Peterson

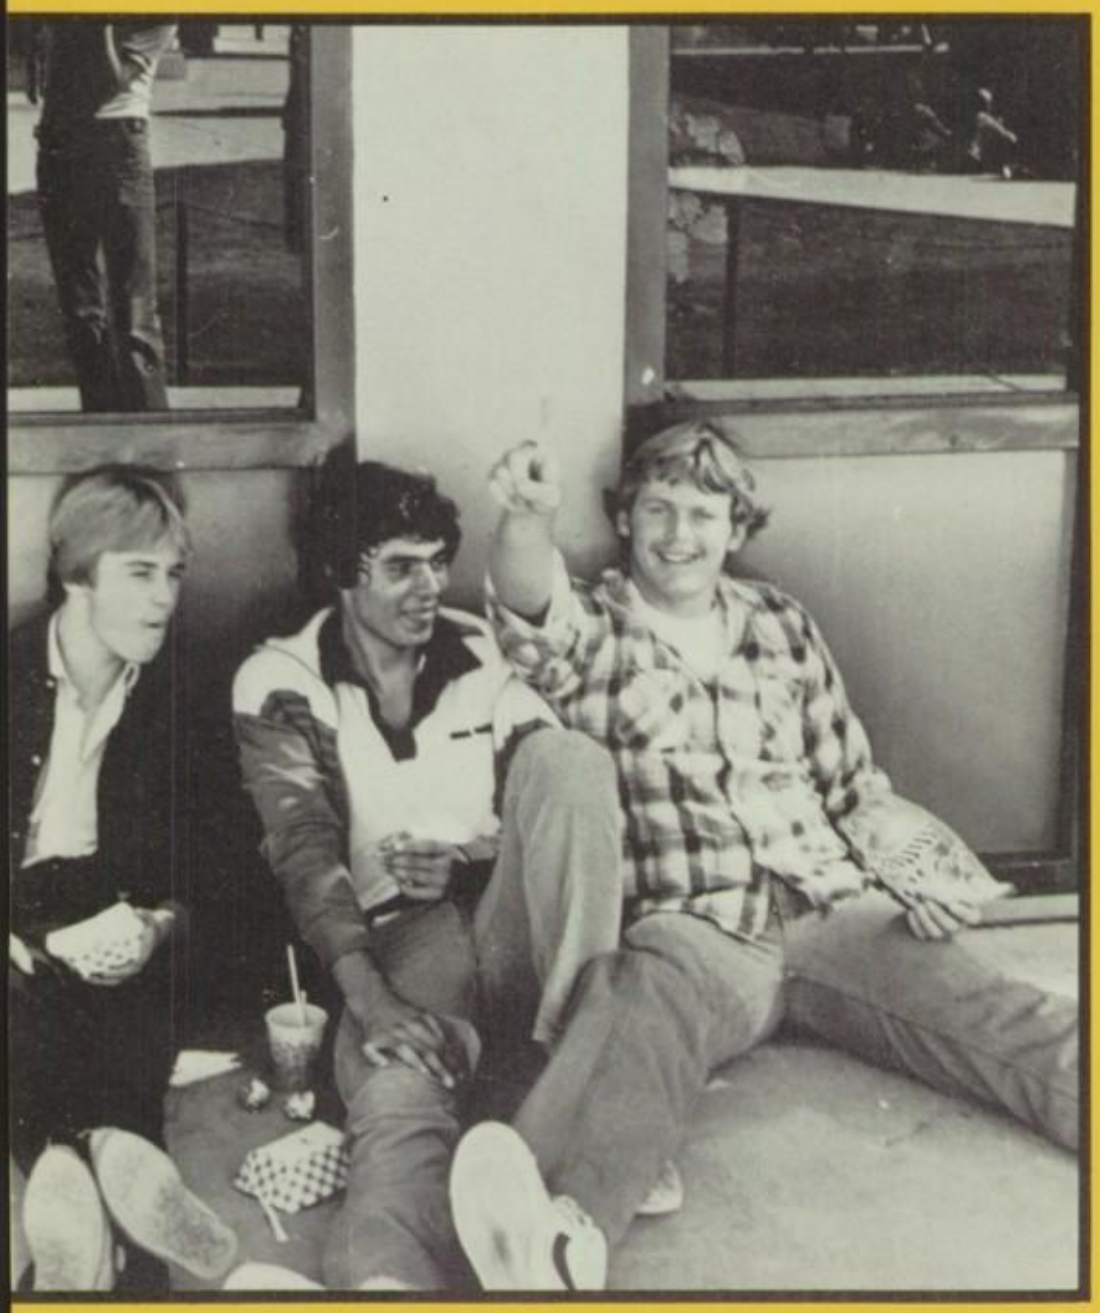


Counterclockwise: Freshman boys kick back and socialize in the wee hours of the morning. Girlfriends group together and gossip before the start of the schoolday. Raycine Jordan and Kristen Spencer make a quick phone call before the first bell. Marilyn Adams cheerily strolls past the cafeteria on her way to 2nd hour. Looks like Tim Garret didn't finish his homework last night!

Much of the G-way population arrived at school habitually early throughout the year. The morning interval from around 7:30 to 8:25 became a time for these students to socialize with their friends and prepare for the day ahead. For those that responded to the obnoxious blare of their alarm clocks, killing time before school became an enjoyable experience.

Students kill time Before school starts





Sophomore Class

2 down, 2 to go!

The following is an evaluation of sophomore class written by the sophomore class: Sophomore class was wonderful, tremendous, fantastic, awesome, purely outgoing, and had a lot of spirit.

Greenway became a place of veritable activity after the 8th hour dismissal bell rang. Students left their last class in a hurry for various reasons. Among these were: school sports, club activities, friends, and, of course, the all-time favorite; GOING HOME!!! The High school provided a place to relax and comtemplate the school day before going home.

G-way, a place of action after school

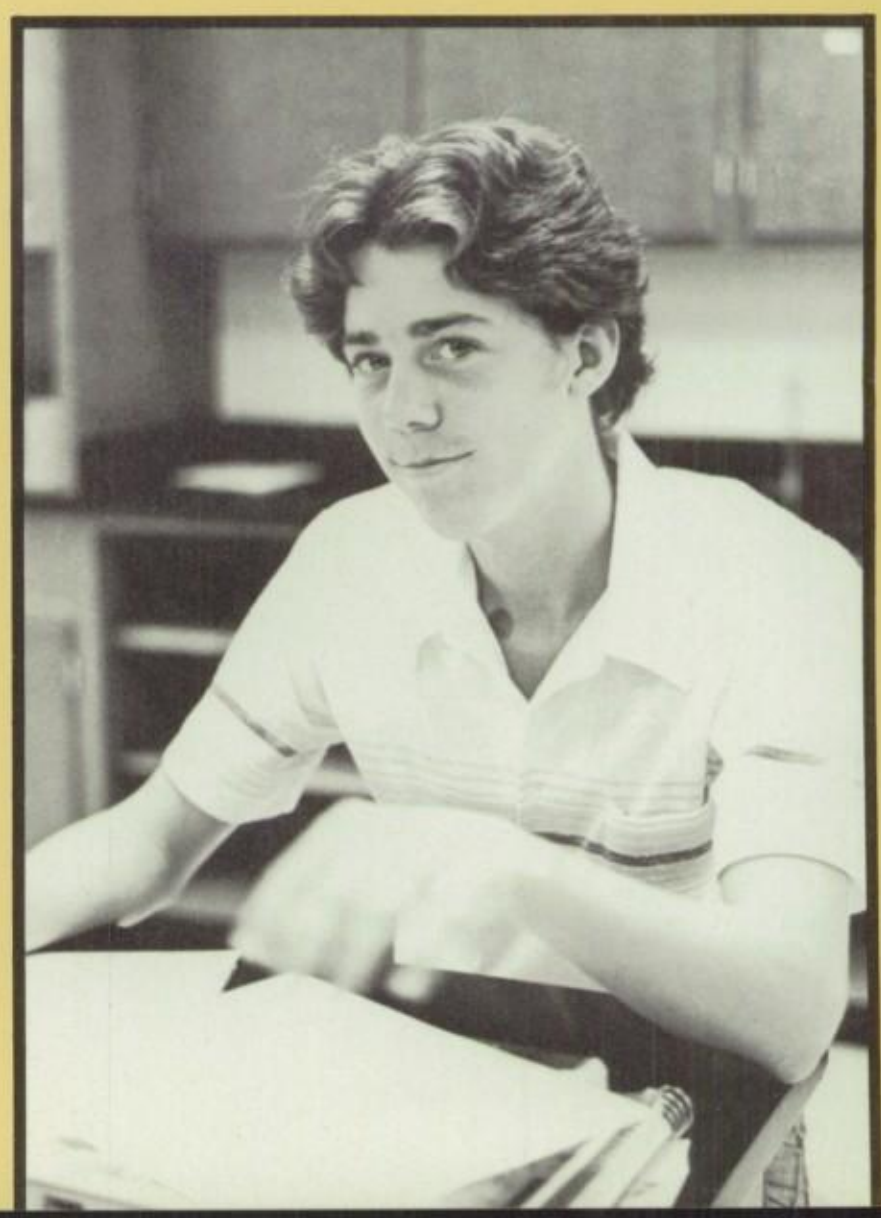
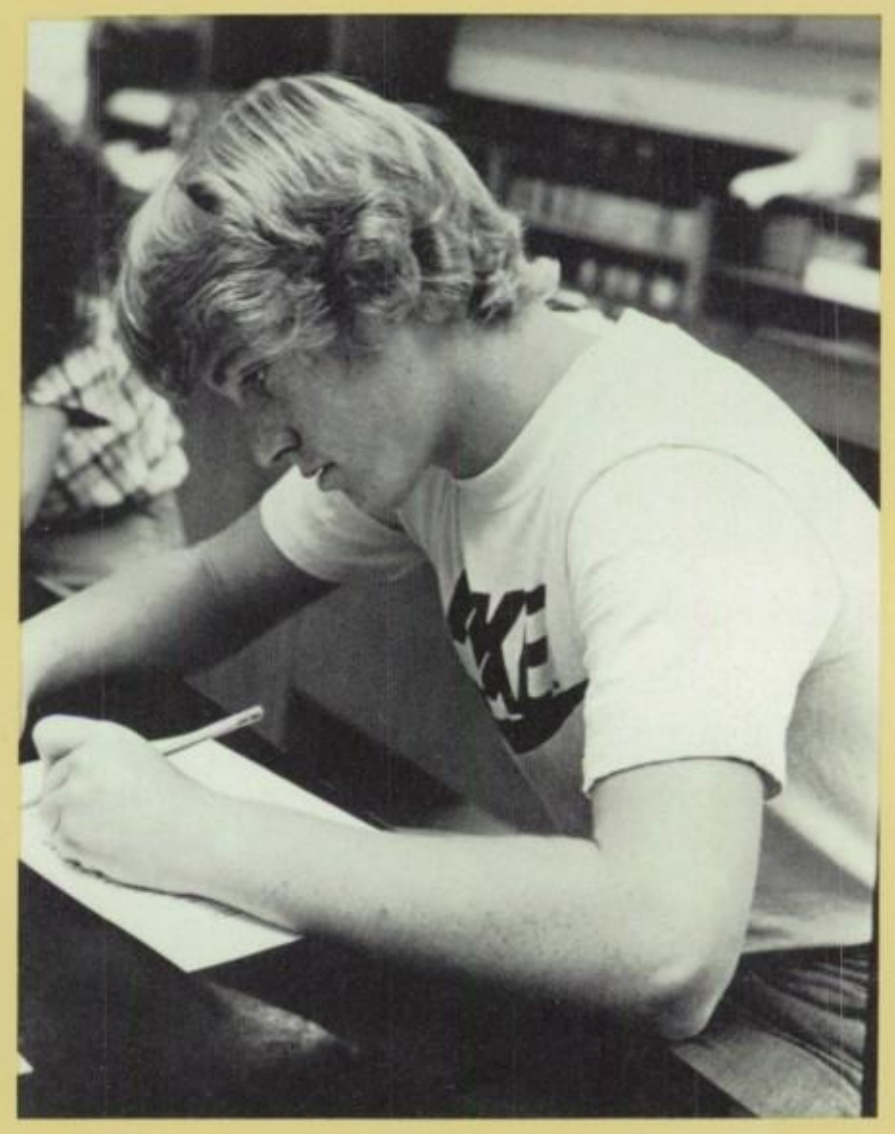
Never so crazy is the class of '82

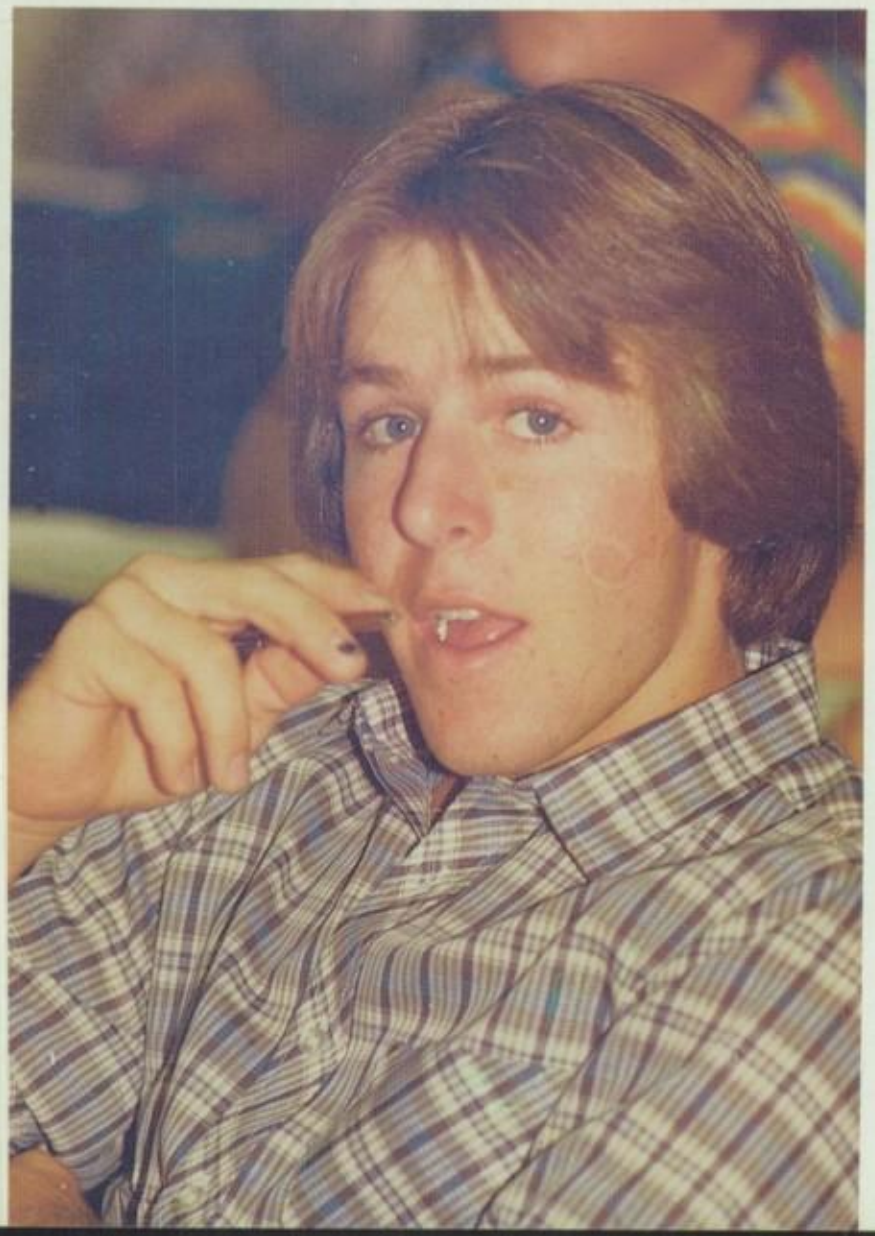
The class of '82 had more spirit than ever this year. Their enthusiasm was shown in pep rallys, assemblies, games, meets and throughout the day.

Juniors participated in many school activities, among these were varsity sports and dressing up for Spirit Week. All-in-all the Junior class was very active and alive.

Counter-clockwise: Cassie Harmon daydreams about the end of the schoolday. Valerie Wilson seems content with being a junior. Peter Nimmo glances up from his studies. Chris Bennett displays her "brute strength". Lunchtime also proves to be a time of relaxation for Tom Gilmore and Don Gardner. Mike Tidd concentrates on his chemistry worksheet.







Students at Greenway reacted differently to the happenings at school. There were times to reflect, times to show spirit, times for laughter, and of course, there were the times to get to know other people. School, with all its aspects, was special to Greenway students.

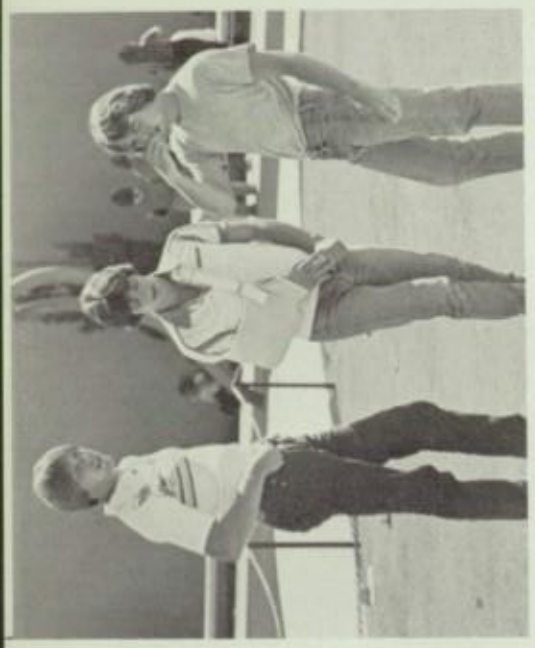
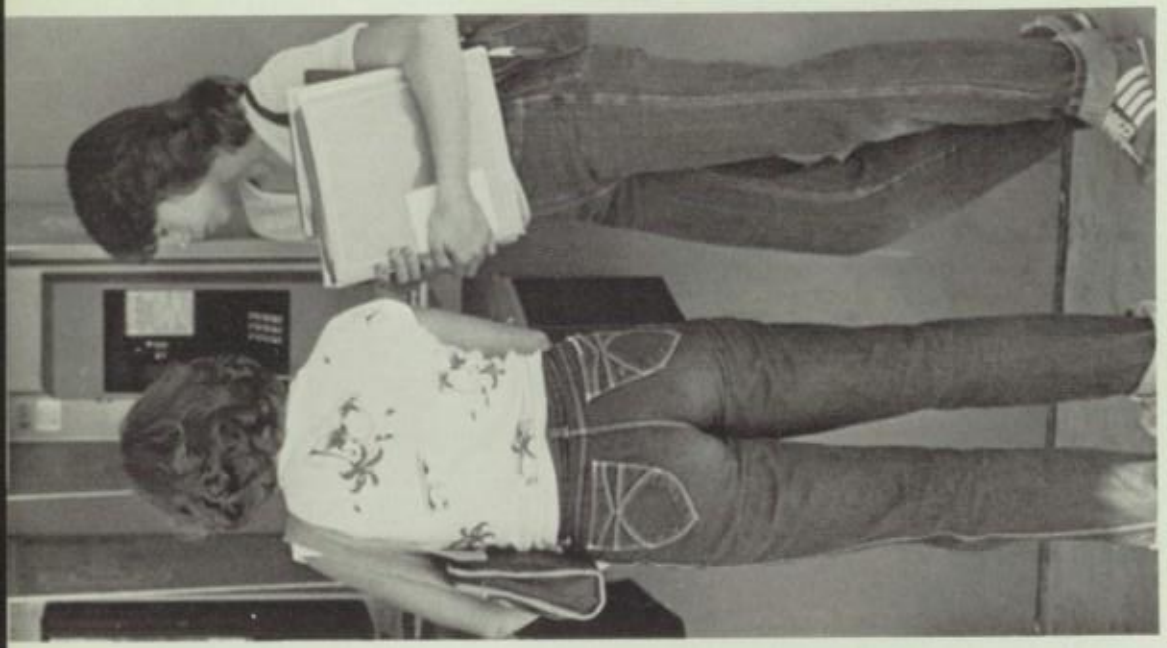
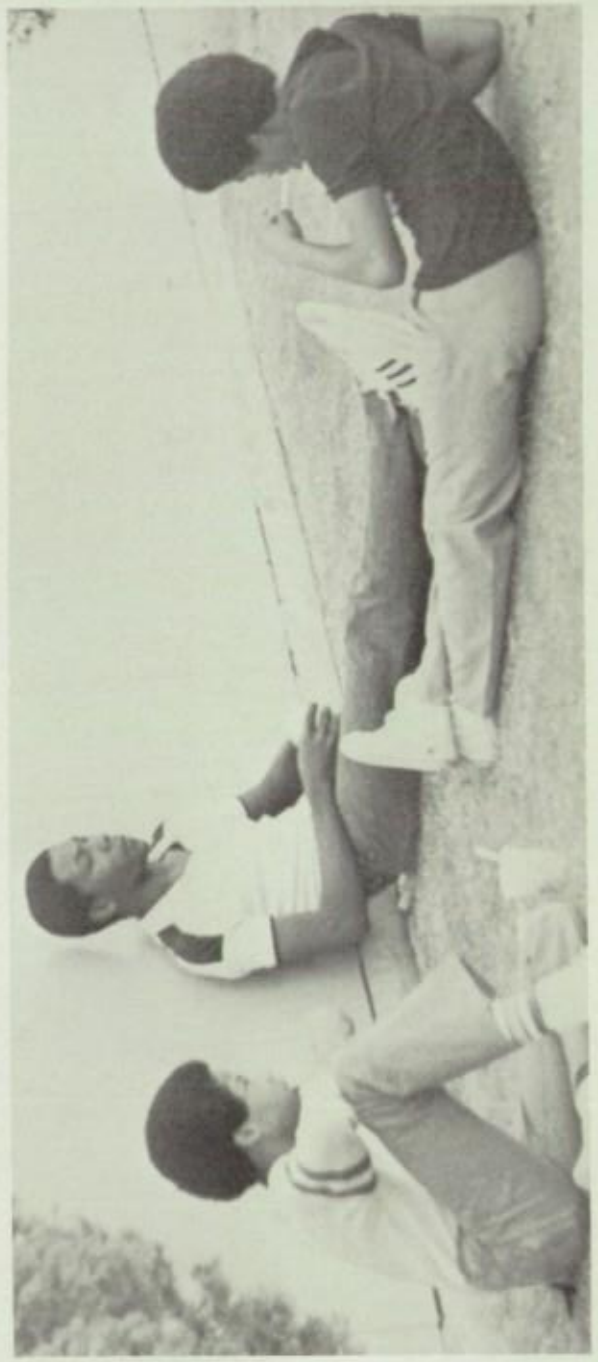
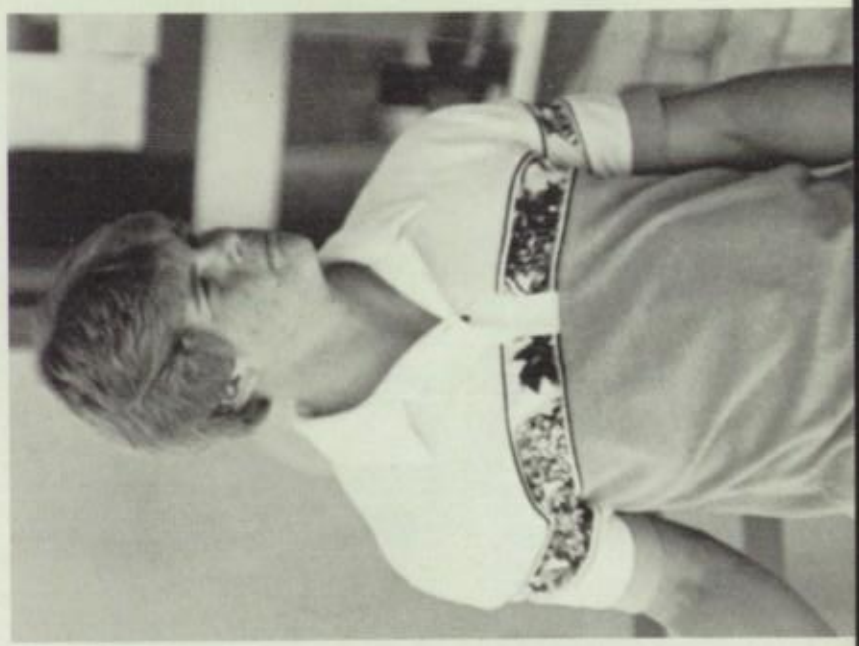
Counterclockwise: Trace Shipley shows excitement. Mickey Dietrich gives her shy look. Sheri Bowley shows her school spirit. Mike Scott wonders if that's what life is all about. Is Loretta Gillespie really listening? Carmen Gesenius rests after a long test. Bob Grado smiles for the camera.









Student Life

Lunches relaxing interval

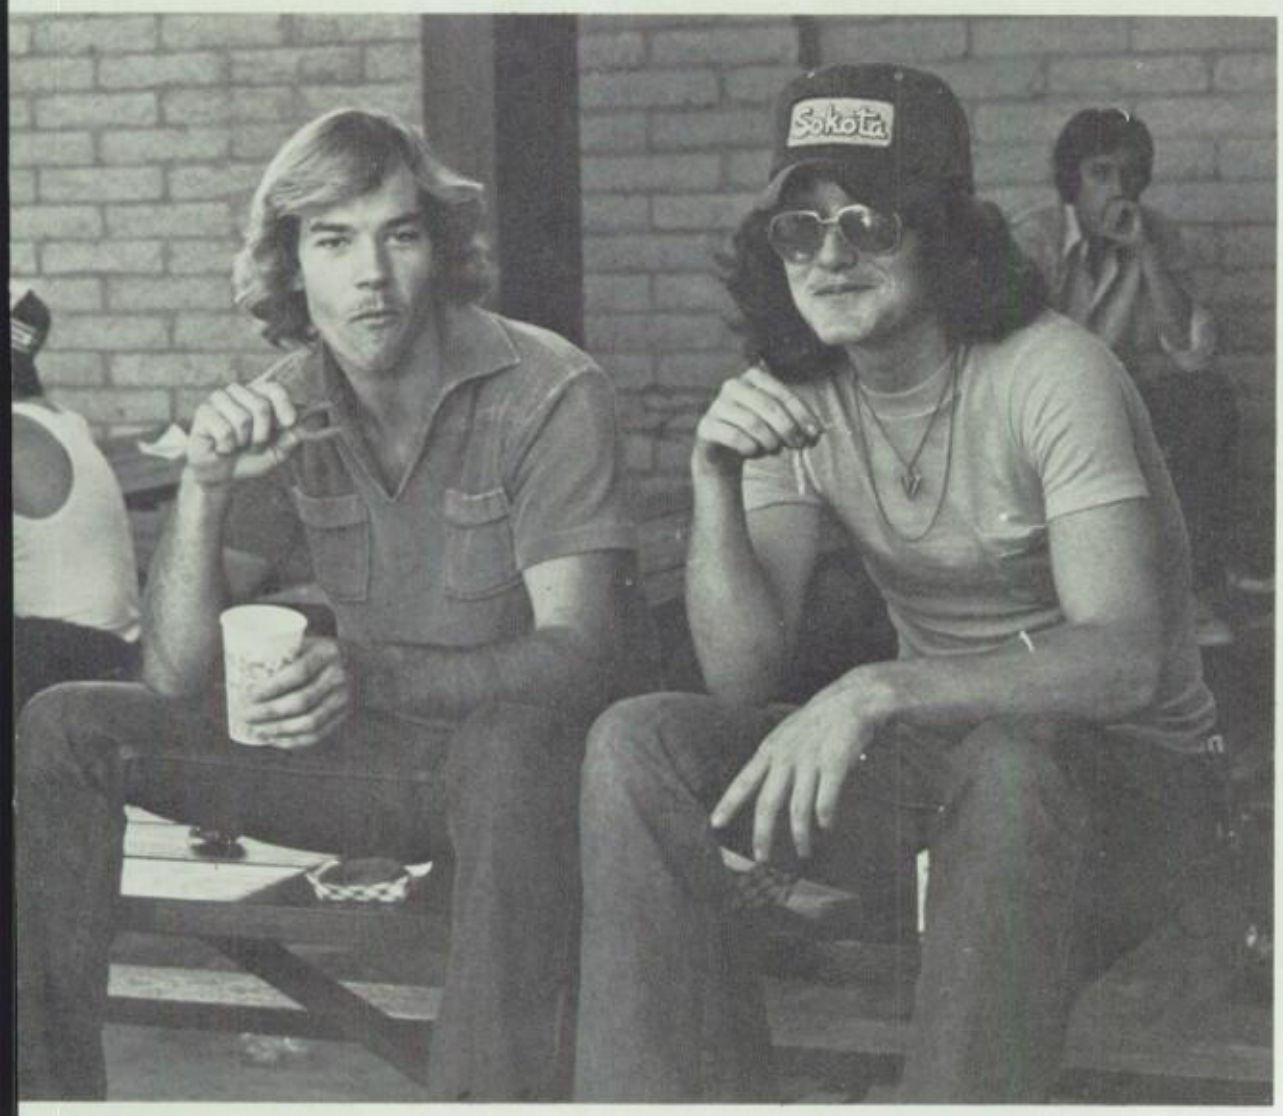
"Extensive research has been done by the USDA Food and Nutrition Service resulting in new school lunch patterns which became effective at the beginning of the 1980-81 school term. The 'offer versus serve' system is more acceptable to the students. They have a larger selections of items to choose from. There has been considerably less plate waste because students have freedom of choice," said Mrs. June Armstrong, cafeteria head.

Coleen Kelly socializes at end of lunch.

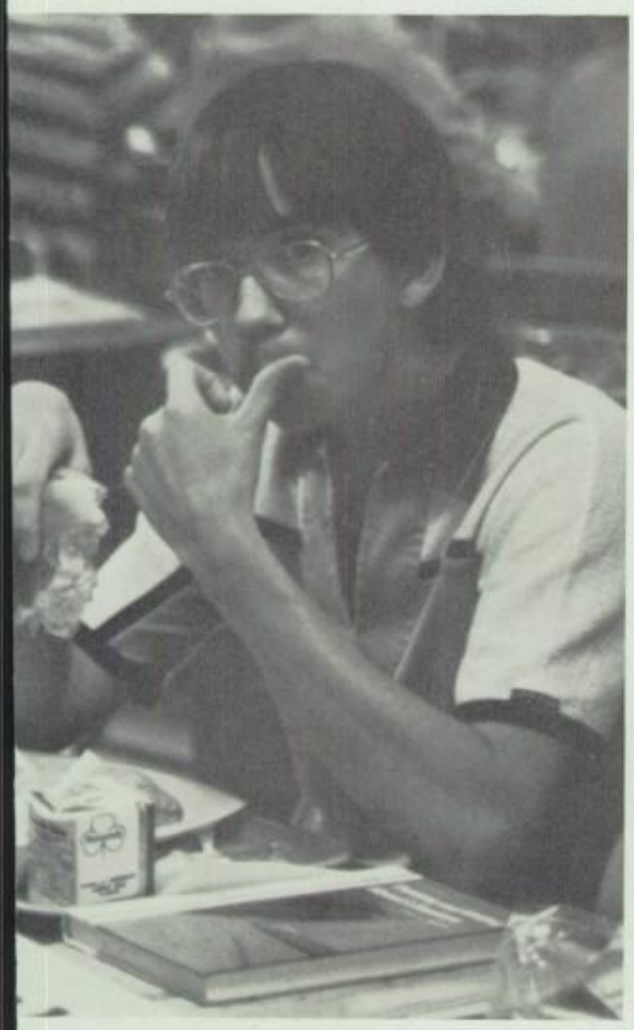
Lisa Lipps starts for class after lunch.

Senior Nanci Beattie passes time at lunch.

Kristine Woodward, Regina Kelly have an enjoyable talk while they are eating lunch.



Robert Carmicheal, Shawn Warren use the picnic tables as benches as they munch lunch.



Glenn Chigges enjoys the variety of food.

Leigh Scheir, Prasith Singradith, Abel Villegas, and Candy Wasson fratenize during lunch.

Spirit Week 1980, new and different!

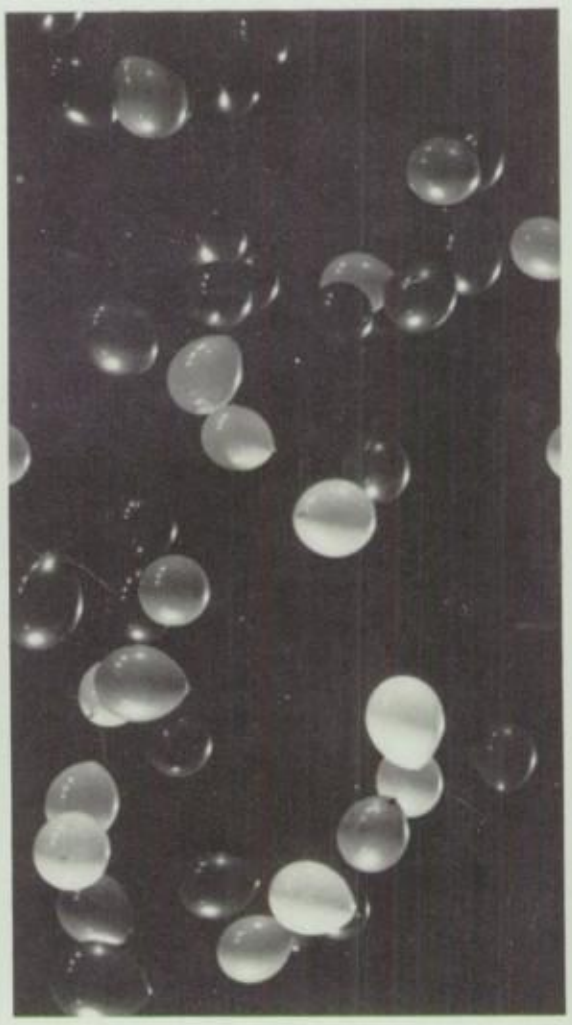
This year's Spirit Week was filled with fun and excitement. It started off on Monday, with "Little Kids Day," Tuesday was "It's a Small World Day," Wednesday was "Disney Day," Thursday was "Music Day," and Friday was the traditional "Green and Gold Day." Every day a special activity was held at lunch, anyone could participate in. There was competition between classes, and a pie in the face contest for the Pom girls.

For something different for the first time, Greenway ran a Homecoming Parade down Greenway Road. All teams, clubs, and other students could participate in this spectacular parade.

Lori Laughlin is caught by the camera with a questionable expression.

Donald Duck marches in the parade.

Ed smiles as he poses as Pinocchio.



Balloons fly high at Homecoming '80.

Nanci Beattie smiles at the taste of coconut cream pie, that is smeared onto her face.

Trace punks out on Musicland Day.

Lisa shows her Homecoming spirit.

Mike Lofton stares hungrily at the pie, as Kathy Smith awaits the moment of despair.

A tribute to the 52 American hostages

On November 4 1979, fifty-two American citizens were taken captive by a militant Iranian Government and held for 444 days. Their ordeal ended on Jan. 20, 1981, with their homecoming overshadowing even President Reagan's inaguration. Yellow ribbons and American flags were raised all over the United States in tribute to those brave Americans. Greenway Demons joined in tribute to those Americans as well as the 8 military men who lost their lives in an unsuccessful rescue attempt that occured in the early month's of the crisis.

Greenway: The only way to go

Student life on Greenway's campus is not ordinary. With many different activities going on on campus, students can be active and have fun all school year. There is nothing like Greenway High School life.

A time of happiness and excitement was displayed during half time of the homecoming game. Students watched as colorful firecrackers were set off and sparkled into the air with an exquisite shine.

Tremendous floats were a part of this half time performance. Homecoming royalty was chosen during half time, which brought about a great amount of spirit.

Royalty attendants were chosen by the student body. Each class voted upon a guy and a girl to represent their particular class. All the students had the opportunity to vote upon the king and queen. Homecoming night seemed to be a great time to remember such special moments.

JV shows promising future

The Greenway J.V. football team finished their successful season with a record of 5-3. They played one less game this year. The coach of the J.V. squad, Rob Roberson stated, "this team is really close knit. They are expected to change the attitude towards football at Greenway in the future."

Freshmen sustain tradition

The freshman football team had an extremely successful season. They rolled to an 8 and 0 winning season. Their first 3 games were shut outs. The coaches at the beginning of the year saw the makings of a good football team, but did not expect to hve a perfect season.

The Greenway offensive line opens a hole for Artie Collins to run for a first down.

Jon Bieglow receives a pass for T.D.

The freshman defensive line breaks out of the huddle to go after their opponent.

Demon Cross Country SECOND in state

Year of the comeback is how Coach Scott Giddings described the 1980-81 Varsity Cross Country team, where quality and depth were synonyms for the team.

The thorobred quality shined through in the senior captains Gregg Bliss and Dan Goodrich. The remaining members added the winning edge by sweeping a majority of the top six places in the dual meets. The Goals of the team were to win the Skyline Division and place in the top five at the State meet.

The soccer team was on trial this year, for it was the first year soccer had been at Greenway. The team finished with a 2-3-5 record. Ernest Guzman was the leading scorer with 8 points. Counselor Jon Miller volunteered for the job as mentor. This year the team was just a club, but maybe next year it will become a varsity sport.

Bob Roddy scores on a great shot.

Varsity Basketball up & down

The 1980-81 season had its ups and downs. During the pre-season the team play was not as consistent as Coach Darrington said it should have been, but said that the low keyed start would help in the long run. This proved to be true as the Demons played through the division tournament to the championship game. The team also earned a spot in the state tournament by defeating 8th ranked Brophy Prep 57-52. Senior Scott Myers and Junior Brad Lohaus earned post season honors by being selected to all league and all division teams.

Kneeling- Jeff Norton, Coach Darrington, Scott Myers. Standing- Tim Butler, Jeff Story, Dick Francis, Sean Kindell, Wayne Poe, John Pingree, Brad Lohaus, Ed Galvin, Gary Rootes, Randy Arthur, Dave Birecki, Chuck Burnett, Scott Novotny.

Sean Kindell pulls up for two.

Ed Galvin pops a quick jumpshot.

Jeff Norton, in deep concentration.

Coach Darrington shouts instructions from the intense bench in a tight situation.

JV starts slow; has strong finish

The JV basketball team started out a little slow, but proved to be strong in the end. A key member of the squad was a freshman, Robert Standifer. He led the team in rebounding and scored well along with juniors Ken Welty and Frank Gallego. Mr. Mueller, coach of the team, said that the players had all improved since the seasons beginning. The JV had great depth. Coach could put anyone in and they could contribute in a positive way. Coach Mueller expected 100% effort while a player was on the floor and hoped that they would represent Greenway well.

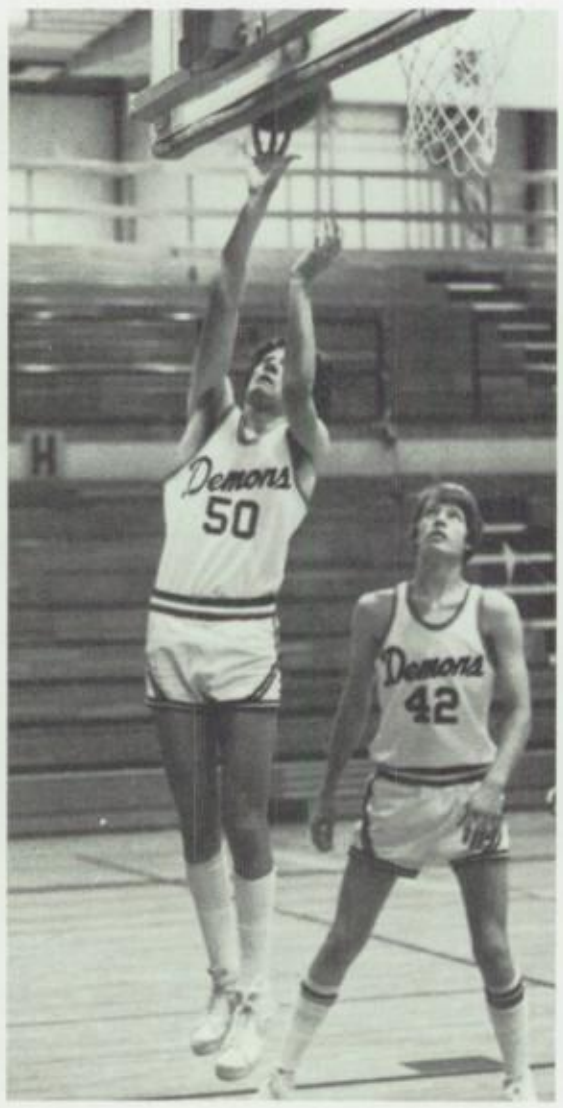
The freshman basketball team showed the Greenway coaching staff that they have potential for the future. Many players showed potential to become varsity players. "We are trying to stress fundamentals of the game such as skill development and game situation play," said Ron Halbach, coach of the frosh. Halbach went on to say that he was trying to develop a concept of team play and build pride in the Greenway basketball program. Outstanding players on the team were: Jeff Canada, Brian Dodd, Bob Kersey, and John Marino.

Brian Dodd looks for the opening.



John Marino moves to the hoop for 2.

Bob Kersey gets position to rebound.

Wrestling pins 'em to the mat

All three levels of wrestling had very good seasons. Highlights of the season were placing second in the Moon Valley Invitational out of 16 teams and thirteenth out of 32 teams in the Peoria Invitational. Helping the team accomplish their goals was three outstanding players: Gordan Cowan, Phil Fierro, and Jim Peters.

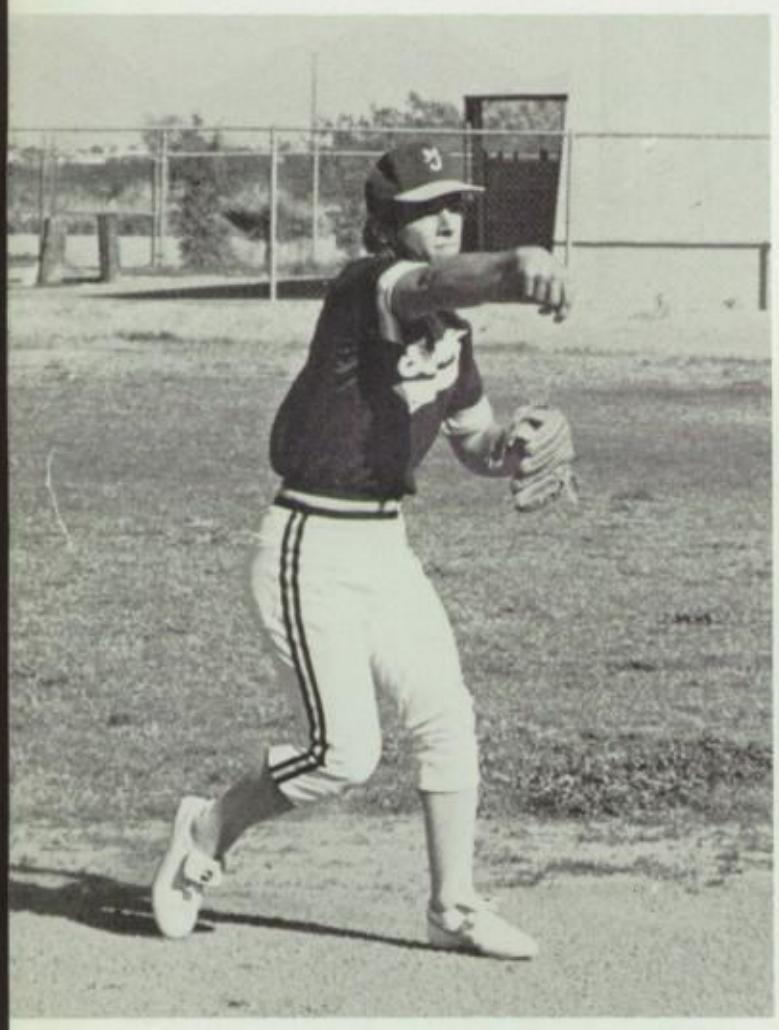
Baseball, potentially best ever

The 1981 varsity baseball team had the potential to be the best in the school's history. They had returning starters in each position of the field. The big question was the hitting that was sporatic the previous year. The attitudes of some of the players have been tremendous. They have gotten real serious about baseball and surely this will show in their performance. The infield was strong, solid and quick. The outfield had superior speed. That combined with one of the best catchers in the state and a good pitching staff gave the team one of the best chances for a division title and a state playoff berth.

Mike Palomino, a three year letterman for the baseball team, works during practice.



Rick Siebert assists the put out.

Third baseman David Holly works on the defensive side of baseball during infield.

Bob Bowers winds up with intensity.

JV team Improves Technique

This year's J.V. crew was small in numbers but had the potential to do well. As freshman they had a real successful season and it has continued through this year's J.V. season as well.

Coach Traber felt that fundamentals of the game were very important to the success of this year's J.V. squad.

Freshmen Display Potential

Coach Morgan is in his first year of coaching at Greenway and brings to the freshman program a solid foundation in which to build a successful season.

The freshman were very successful in football and wrestling and we look forward to that continued winning attitude in baseball.

JV track strengthen the team

The boys JV track team consisted of mostly sophomores and few juniors. The coach of the team was Mr. Robinson. The team had a wide variety of talent, especially in the area of hurdlers. Many would be able to run varsity at other schools, but with the amount of upper classmen they were unable to do so. There was a faster quality of sprinters, especially in the 400 meters. Shawn Bolten excelled in high jump and hurdles, and Bill Alexander excelled in the 400 meters.

Greenway's Hans Hensley practices his form over 9 hurdle during a preseason practice.

Frosh track prepares for future

1 row: Tim Adams, Forrest Bevaqua, Randy Fernandez, Chris Abbott, John Byrns, Steve Scocco, Brent Camlett. 2 row: Ron Rudd, Brad Lethem, Michael Daniel, Nick Sokolouski, Denise Pitman. 3 row: John Peters, Ron Kraus.

Freshman track shwed a good outlook for the future. Randy Fernandez and Forrest Bevacqua were this year's outstanding hurdlers. The long distance runners also added depth to the team, which proved exceptional due to the coaching of Scott Giddings and Robby Robinson.

Frank Anteri practices long jump.

Track strengthened by Seniors

"By far this year's track team had the most potential in the history of Greenway," said coach Robinson. The entire varsity team was taken through the season with the guidance of the seniors. They led the team into tough meets such as the Glendale Invitation, The Valley Classic, The District Relays, Districts, Divisionals, and on into state. The individuals that directed the distance crew were Greg Bliss and Dan Goodrich. The sprinters were directed in the 100 and 200 meter dashes by Senior Bob Hill and Junior Tim Strictland. Hurdlers gained strength from returning members, Mike Barrett and Todd Goodman. A great asset to the high jump was John Pingree. The seniors enhanced this year's track season along with back up support by the underclassmen.

Boy's tennis heads for divisionals

The boys tennis team, coached by Bill Collins, has had a very successful year. Coach Collins felt that the varsity and junior varsity players have a bright future ahead of them. The team tried to achieve one major goal, which was to play to the best of their abilities and to increase their skills. The boys tennis team gave great dedication and worked hard on perfecting their tennis strategy and skills of forehand, backhand, overhead smashes and serves. The team overall had a season of accomplishment. Outstanding players were Link Smelser, Bruce Halverson, Alan Porter and Mike Hustings.

Varsity volleyball has good potential

"Senior Julie Bergeron, third year on varsity, was the outstanding player for the 1980-81 Varsity Volleyball Team." said Coach Lehman.

The season hi-light was the defeat of Apollo 2-1 at the GUHSD Invitational Volleyball Tournament held at Greenway.

The girls won a pizza party by selling the most tickets for the tournament held at Greenway.

Softball takes over 1st place

The 1980-81 Demon softball team again achieved placement in the Divisional Tournament for the third consecutive year. The regular season record was 13-5, and included a second place finish in both the Skyline "A" League and Christmas Tournament.

This year's squad set a school record of 5 shutouts and 2 no-hitters. Outstanding pitching and defense lead the Demons in a late season surge to clinch a spot in the playoffs.

Coach McQuade said the team showed togetherness and spirit, along with a willingness to dedicate themselves toward a common goal. He also stated, "This is a team in which Greenway can be proud."

Frosh Softball has great potential

Kim Carlson concentrates on throwing one of her specialty pitches over home plate.

The Freshman Softball team did a good job this year. They had eight wins and five losses. They also beat the undefeated Cortez team eight to four the second time around. They were known to play well, especially when they were under pressure.

"We lost our number one pitcher to the J.V. team and had a few injuries but in general, we had a good season. The dedicated girls did a super job showing great potential for their future years," said their sponsor Mrs. Eagle.

Girls Track had positive outline

"This, without a doubt, was one of the better years for girls track," stated head coach of girls track, Coach Rob Roberson. "The main reasons being the outstanding ability and leadership of the team's seniors and the fact that there was a number of returning juniors with two years of experience. We feel that this year was the year of Revenge."

Chain Gang supports football team

Chain Gang is an organization that helps the football team in many ways. From what people see, the Chain Gang is on the field at all the home games marking first downs and showing the number of plays. The Chain Gang is also very active off the field helping raise money for the football team as in an awards banquet, pizza party and buying equipment for the team. Most of these functions go unnoticed by the school, as most people don't know that all the money raised by chain Gang goes for the team.

"The girls this year were very spirited and fun to work with. I felt they did a fine job this year." said Miss Green.

Pom line sparkles with Style and originality

Four seniors and eight juniors make up the 1980-81 Pom Squad. Under the leadership of co-captains Jill Johnson and Kathy Smith, the pom line spent hours perfecting routines to be performed at football games. The pom line under the direction of sponser Virginia Roberts attended "The Camp of Champs" in Flagstaff. There the line received a first place trophy for all of the blue ribbons they won, they also received a plaque for the dance they brought from Greenway.

Student council accomplishes goals

The Greenway Student council accomplished many goals that they set for themselves this past year. One accomplishment was the Homecoming parade which was held in November. Two new goals achieved by Student council included, a mock election in which students under eighteen voted for the President of their choice, this gave the Student Council an idea of the student's feelings of the 1980 election. The other being a club showcase which informed freshman of clubs and sports on campus. Also held was a canned food drive. The cans received went to the West Side Food Bank. The canned food drive brought in over 2,200 pounds of cans.

Model UN expresses unique ideas

The Model United Nations was composed of people who were interested in world affairs. Each year there is a convention held at the University of Arizona, where students from various schools hold a mock meeting of the United Nations. Then Model U.N. members portray different groups of a particular country, and are to support that country's beliefs. Greenway Model U.N. members portrayed the countries; Japan, Jordan and Venezuela. The members solve certain country's problems while portraying the country from which they are from.

Marching band overflows with sound

Twilers: Jeanne Johnston

The Advanced Band was divided into 3 major performance groups: Marching, Symphonic, and Pep. The Marching Demon Band received state-wide recognition as one of the finest and most entertaining in Arizona. They featured an outstanding Flag Corps and Drum line. Led by drum major Beth Morrison, the band was one of Greenway's most proficient. In November, the advanced band began preparation as a Synphony Band. They played 3 on campus concerts and 2 at other sites. During basketball season, advanced band became the Pep Band. Pride, enthusiasm, and spirit eminating from this band gave the team's home court advantage real meaning. It was a busy year.

Band strives for great success

The Intermediate Band functioned as a young concert band. The group was made up of mostly freshman and sophomores that had the ability and desire to play band music on a basic level. In reality, this group functioned as a learning situation for those students aspiring to move into the Advanced Band in the future. The group was enthusiastic and they are potentially good musicians. Hopefully the majority of the students will improve enough to progress to the Advanced Band.

"More than a class a marvelous group"

A few students performing in concert choir.

Concert choir had many outstanding singers, several of whom were gold medal winners. Some of the students were leads in shows at Greenway.

"Regardless whether you wish to be an actor, a singer or a speaker it is important to develop the voice to its finest quality through intensive voice training." Said Ruth Dubinbaum, choir sponsor.

In preparation for concerts, solo and ensemble festival, the chorus practiced in the early morning and also at Mrs. Dubinbaum's house.

Mrs. Dubinbaum gave up her lunch and prep to help out students.

Concert choir was run by: Sheldon Howard, president; Sonya Jones, vice-president; Justine Paluh, secretary and Laurie Smith, treasure.

Chorus raised money from concerts in places like: the Hyatt Regency, Veterans Memorial Hospital, Arizona Biltmore, and Scottsdale Shadows. They also raised money by selling candy, and this year had a record sale.

The chorus donated money for charity and music scholarships.

Greenway's performers entertain

The Drama Club had an exciting event this year. It was the dedication of their long-awaited auditorium, which was held in March. Also in March, the Drama Club sponsored a school dance. Following this was their annual play. The busy springtime activities for the club also included the talent show and initiation of new officers for 1982 held at the yearly Thespian banquet. On a sad note, Mrs. Goldstein decided to resign. Her reason was "I'm going to be a full-time mommy." The new instructor taking Goldstein's place will be Leo Sears.

Drama Club, 1st row: Chris Green, Dave Sandler, Tracy Miller, LeeAnne Suggs, Cindy Ragsdale, Gina Volpe, Ellen Worysylla, Janet Sutorka, Margaret Quinn, Katrina Matusek, J.C. Once again DECA beams Through.

The Greenway DECA club was a club for students in merchandising. This year's club, was the largest ever at a 113 members. DECA participated in many activities including an anti-shoplifting campaign for grade schools, adopting a needy family at Christmas, and sponsoring the Homecoming dance. In May, the club took 40 members to Los Angeles to visit manufacturers retail stores, a merchandising school, and an advertising firm. DECA also visited Disneyland, the beach and Universal Studios. In February and March, 75 members competed against 65 other schools in areas such as advertising, jewelry, food marketing and several others. Once again, Greenway had a fine showing, finishing in the top 10 in the state.

Demon Dispatch staff keeps Demons aware

The Demon Dispatch staff, headed by co-editors Kathy Edwards and Debbie Stiener, has taken pride in keeping the Demons aware. The school newspaper advisor, Peggy Gregory, has been sponsoring the Demon Dispatch since the founding of Greenway High School. The newspaper has covered many feature news articles, such as; Anorexia Nervousa, Teenage pregnancy and marriage, The on-campus bombings, and Toxic-Shock Syndrome. The staff members spent many hours both during and after school to turn out an award-winning newspaper that Greenway can be proud of.

Mighty Mouths promote spirit

The Mighty Mouths attend as many games as possible to help the cheerleaders lead the cheering from the stands. Said the sponsor of the Mighty Mouths Mr. Schneider, "The purpose of the group is to develope school spirit by supporting school teams, cheerleaders, and other campus sports. Also, to spend time and money assisting the school, community, and international charitable organizations." This year the Mighty Mouths collected over 200 gifts for poor families during the Christmas "Toys for Tots." program.

Downhill racers Take to the slopes

The Ski Club, now known as the Downhill Racers, very rarely got a chance to ski, but when they did they really went at it! This year the club took four trips to Sunrise Ski Resort which included one overnight trip. Sponsored by Rosie Revero and Doug Howard, the club exists mainly for the fun of the students and membership is open to anyone.

Traffic law Taught by TRAGYC

"Never take no for an answer and we are what we think we are." That is the philosophy of the Greenway TRAGYC club. TRAGYC had a very successful year, said sponsor Steve Daly. The club visited many elementary schools during the year, performing skits to spread traffic safety. Mr. Daly went on to say that the officers were real hard workers and seemed to enjoy promoting safety throughout the community. The club's major goal is to eventually put a traffic light at the intersection of 39th and Greenway.

Administrators are involved

Our principals are really involved in the activities which take place on our campus. They take pride in their role as administrators. Brian LaCorte, student body president said, "Greenway High School is proud of it's principals and deans."

CRAIG DARRINGTON - Dean

ROBERT STERRETT - Principal

LARRY BURGESS - Assistant Dean

DAVID SMITH - Assistant Principal

STEVE KNIGHT - Assistant Principal

Glendale Union High School District Board of Education. Seated: Board Clerk Gordon Wagner and Board President Dr. Donald Voss. Standing: Board Members Mr. Bill Stout, Mrs. Anne Schulz and Mr. Richard Stapley.

Dr. William L. Jones, Superintendent
Glendale Union High School District.

Elected by the community, the five board members are responsible for establishing the policies by which the entire Glendale District is run. During the past year, they made some important decisions affecting Greenway, its programs and students. The superintendent and the Greenway administration, hired by the board, were responsible for operating the school in keeping with those decisions.

Yearbook class "Nothing Like It"

Editors: Bottom- Scott Myers, layout editor; Susie Russell, editor; Laurie Prill, photography editor; Dean Hughes, copy editor, clubs editor. Top- Kathy Furtmann, photography editor; Chuck Burnett, sports editor; Mike Barrett class editor.

Yearbook class was a different experience for anyone. Long hours were spent after school and on weekends working. Burnie spent many hours with photographers and staffers to make sure everything turned out right. Long hours were also spent selling and distributing the Demonian. All-in-all the staff spent many thankless hours "slave-dogging" to put out an unbelieveably terrific yearbook.

Heather Farrier and Kathy Smith work on cropping the pictures for their band layout.

Photographers are "in the dark"

Yearbook photographers spent many hours shooting, developing, and printing pictures sometimes on the spur of the moment. Advanced photography helped by shooting the faculty section while the yearbook photographers shot photographs for the remaining deadlines.

Parent Action Club saves money

Parent Action Club is a club for parents and administrators who want to raise money for various projects they select to aid the school. The money that was accumulated during the year will be added to next year's funds so needed supplies can be bought for the auditorium.

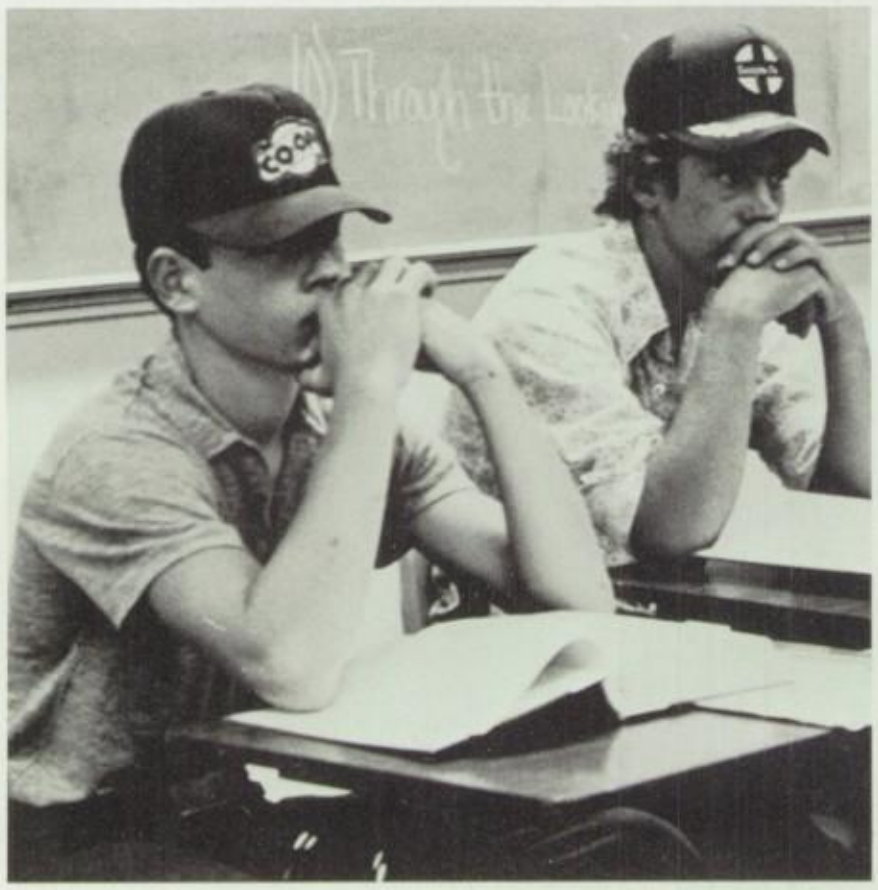
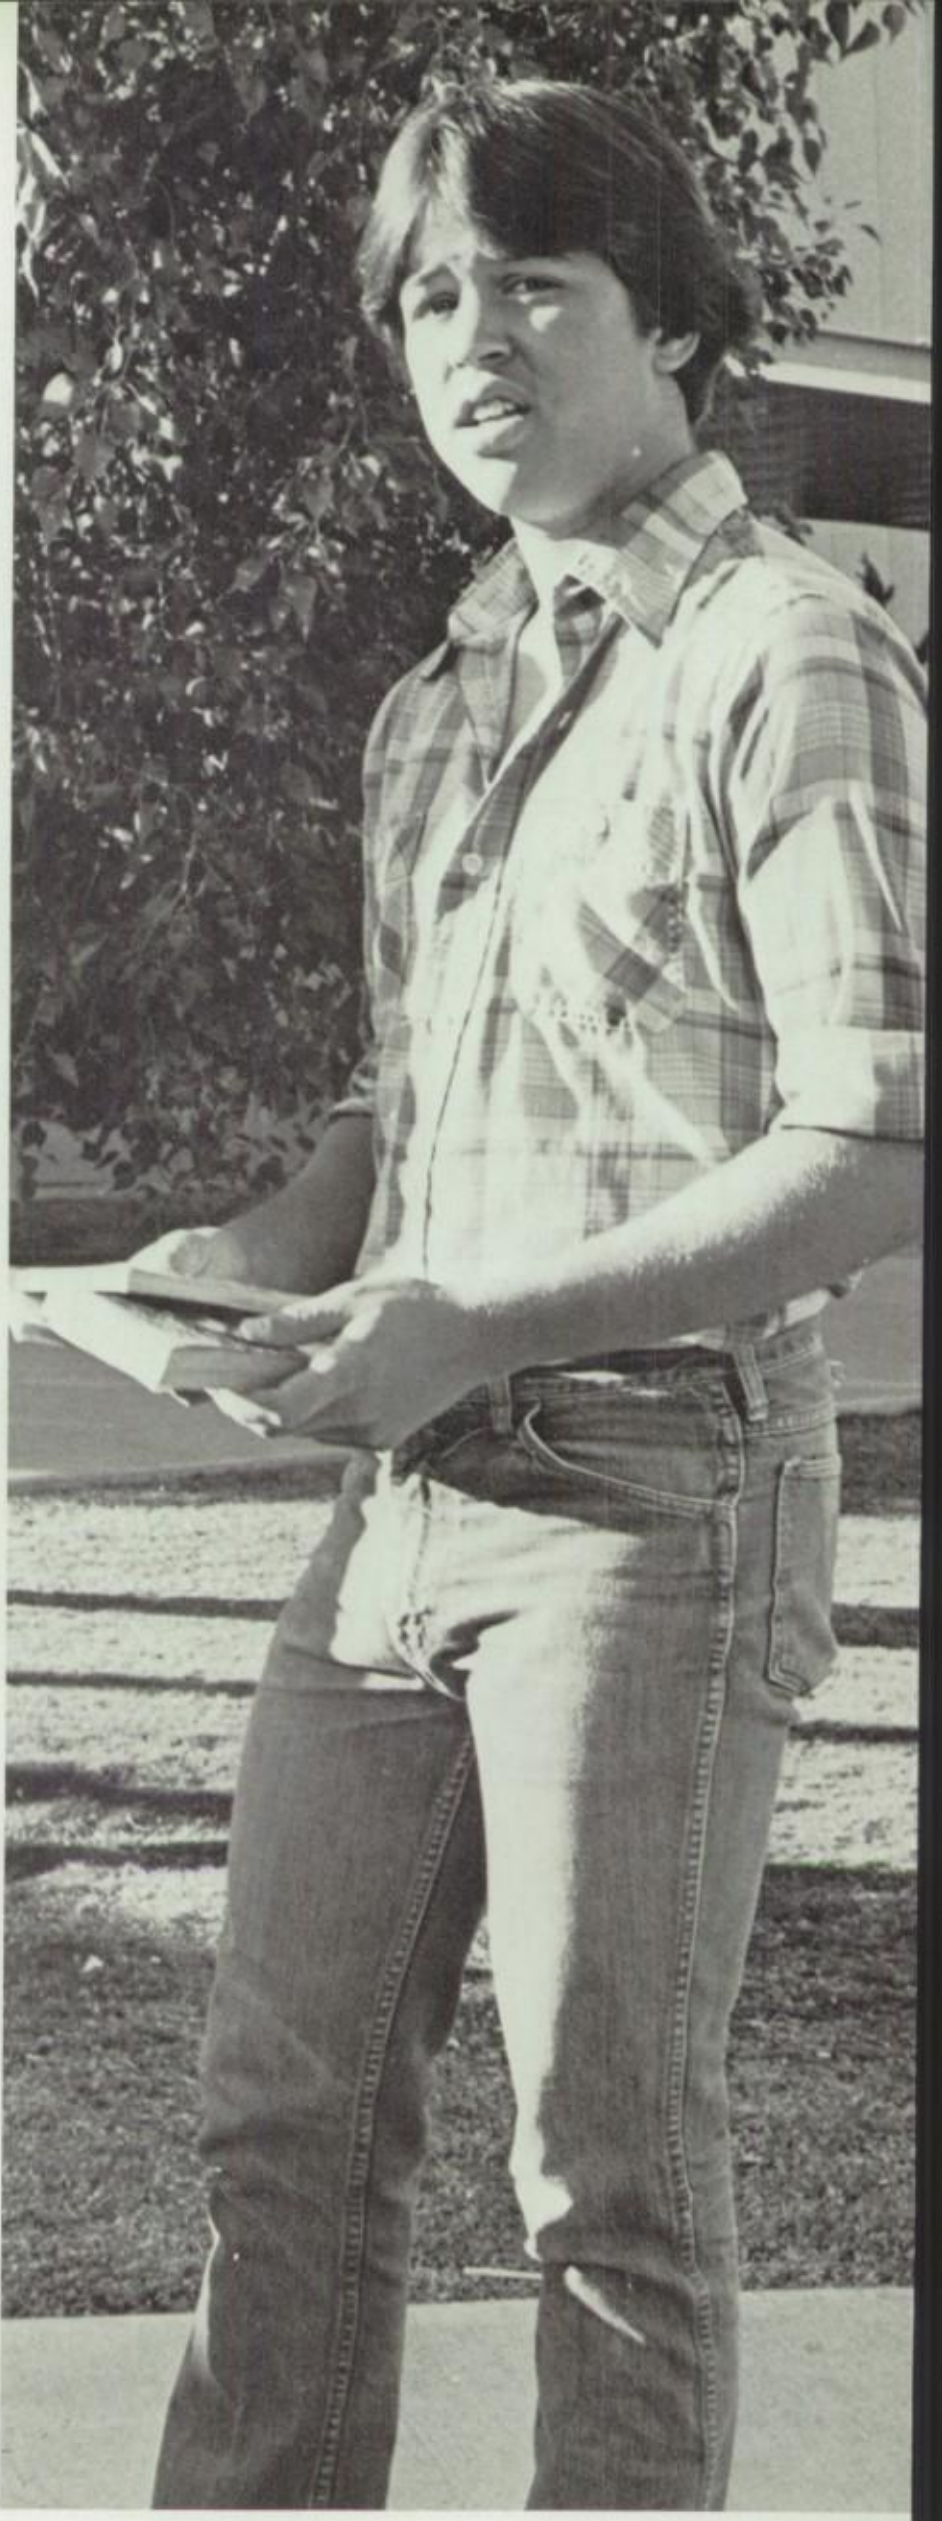
Meeting new friends Increases happiness

Counterclockwise: Sherri Gore, Cheryl Fritts, and Chris Romero strike a rowdy pose that expresses the mood they're feeling. Dave Caivano and Angie Powell take time to relax in each other's company. A familiar group of Greenway students socializes before class. Dave Marichalar and Gordon Cowen find their schoolwork amusing. Karen Hicks, Julie Bergeron, and Laurie Kuitunun epitomize the camaderie which is seen often on Greenway's campus. Karen Steyer and Margaret Gates gossip about the morning during their lunch break.

Counterclockwise: Mike Middlekamp truly believes in the senior class. Three cheers for the class of '81 are given by Joan Konecki and Sherilyn Shaw. Sheila Walsh looks forward to life beyond graduation. Peggy Smith, Linda Clark, Sherri Boulet, and Melissa Gonzalez radiate the joy of being seniors. Cathy Bevacqua takes time out from Matt Trinkle to show senior pride. Charles Wolfe and Brian Wooten portray four years of Greenway High School.



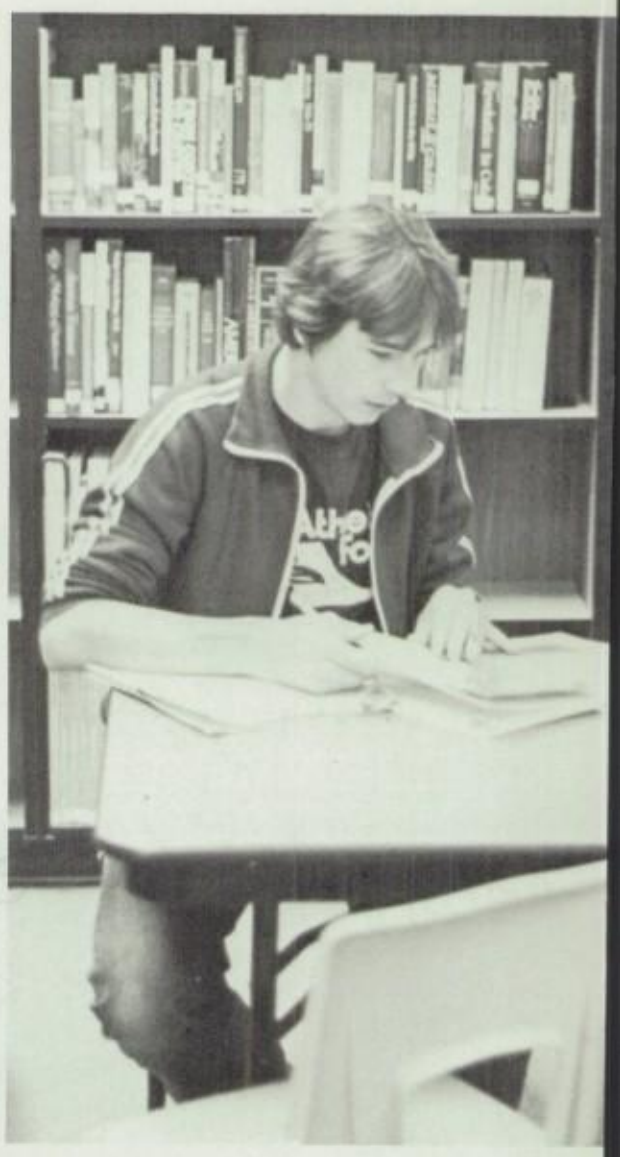


Senior class 'Rules'

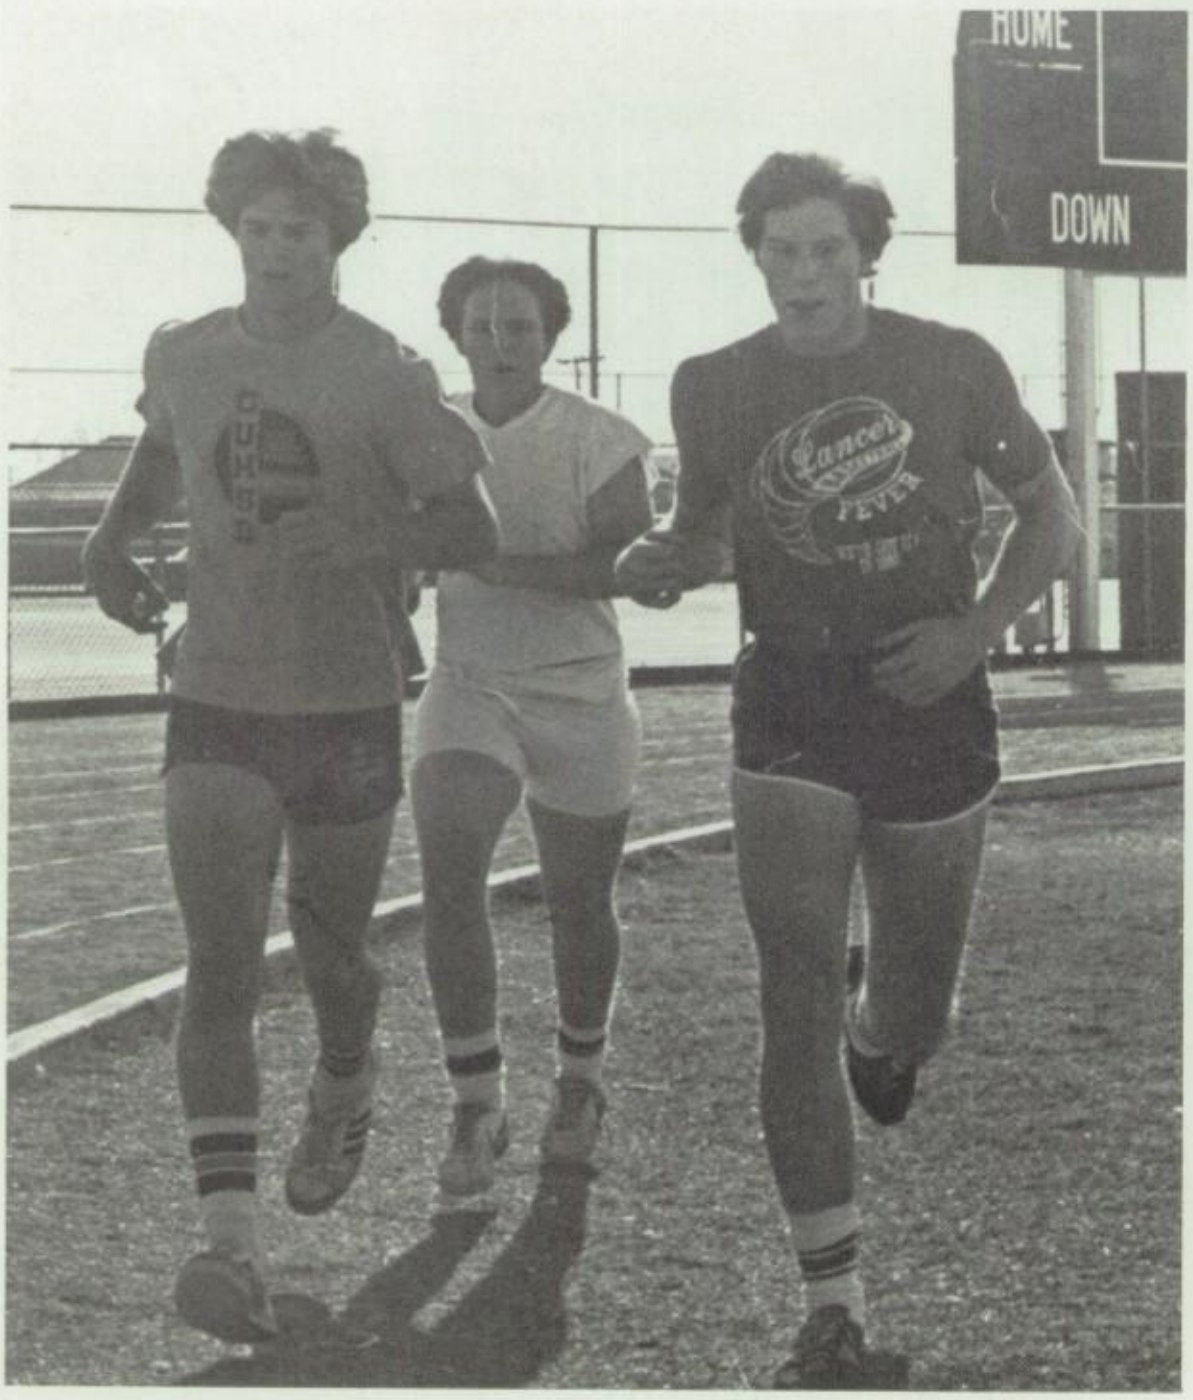
The senior class of 81 had the hopes and desires to reach for the sky and strived for perfection knowing that they would succeed. All the hours spent practicing, working, and sweating were worthwhile, because everyone worked together. Being together for four years gave this class a chance to share and a chance to grow as one. The memories made will last throughout life.

Greenway students put in extra effort

Greenway students are known for their quality and can be seen working hard to live up to those standards. Many students spent hours studying and striving to improve the school and the community. Entire clubs such as Drama, Newspaper, Chess, Model U.N., and Yearbook spent hours after school working on their activities. Freshmen, J.V., and Varsity sports teams stayed until early evening practicing to achieve the outstanding records they had.



Ron Reavis works hard to finish his history assignment in the library.



Robie Anderson, Joe Weaver, and Rick Bartow work hard to keep in good shape.

Tony Brezinski builds up his leg muscles by running around the football field.

Erin Owens gives it all she's got as she hits another home run in practice.

Chris Shull types an important paper.

Paula Krueger and Julie Nelson think about the big game the next day.

Veronica Gerard crams for an exam.

Bogus!
To my best Bogus! It's been great to actually have you as a friend. We've been through a lot! Hey lets I'm glad we made it! Thanks for

Chris
It's been different knowing you this year.
To bad it was never. Looks like you and Ale had a little fun one night. But your weird anyways. Just take your clothes off
and then I will wash them for you because you stink.

Chris
Even know
we kid you
a lot. and treat you bad. We don't mean it? So have a good summer and stay loose!

fun one night. But your weird
anyways. Just take your clothes off
and then I will wash them for you because you stink.

You've got more years of school
left I am out now for 2
Well I hope I can stay in to touch with ya how nice hope to see the first space in coming everything goes well for ya in coming your have the best time you can
Mike
Frederick

KRIS,
I no I act
like I hate you alot but you are really a nice person.
Bout take all my meanness to heart.
Have fun this summer
asshole (just joking)
See ya next year

Chris-
Its been awesome and intense having you at Greenway. Now I want to have you at home, Good luck. take it easy.
